Aspiring's courses:

(Intensive English)

The General English course is divided into 4 levels from Elementary to Upper-Intermediate. Teachers work from a detailed syllabus with textbooks and a variety of classroom activities. Multiple teaching methods are used to get the best results.

The IELTS Preparation course aims to achieve students' needs for the IELTS exam. It is designed to assess the language ability of candidates who want to study or work where English is the language of communication.

IELTS is recognised by over 6,000 organisations worldwide, including universities, employers, professional bodies, immigration authorities and other government agencies

Intensive English Class Structures

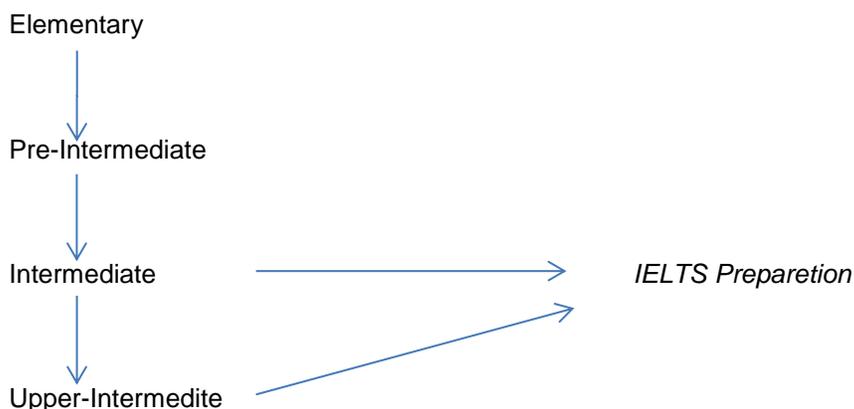

General English

- Elementary: This level is for students who are weak in English foundation and need to obtain daily English skills
- Pre-Intermediate: This level is to help obtain basic communication skills and useful daily English skills. After this level students can communicate with other people in English
- Intermediate: This level focuses on overcoming daily communication barriers in English for students who have already obtained basic communication skills
- Upper-Intermediate: This level is for students who have already achieved a good foundation of English and want to improve their speaking and listening. This level mainly focuses on topic discussion and overcoming language communication barriers that impede fluency

It usually takes 12 weeks to complete one level.*

IELTS Preparation: This level is for students who have already achieved a Band Score 5 in IELTS or have a similar English level. The class focuses on IELTS test preparation

The average time to move up a band score is about 14-16 weeks.*

(NZCEL Level 4)

Aims

The aim of this programme is to enable international students to gain a command of English that are practical and immediately useable in the real world and/or ongoing study. The programme focuses on the academic context to prepare learners for further study in New Zealand.

Profile and Program Content

The certificate at this level is to build on the skills already attained from earlier studies completed at level 3 or equivalent training scheme.

At this level the graduate will be able to:

- Understand the main ideas of complex text on both concrete and abstract topics, including technical discussions in his/her field of specialization.
- Interact with a degree of fluency and spontaneity that makes regular interaction with native speakers quite possible without strain for either party.
- Produce clear, detailed text on a wide range of subjects and explain a viewpoint on a topical issue giving the advantages and disadvantages of various options

Outcome

Graduates of this programme will be awarded the New Zealand Certificate in English Language (Academic Context) (Level 4). They will have the English ability and skills to progress into a higher level study in New Zealand institution, and will be able to:

- Understand main ideas and key supporting details of complex oral texts on familiar and sometimes unfamiliar topics
- Read and understand complex texts with a large degree of independence on familiar and sometimes unfamiliar topics
- Locate, organise and summarise important information in texts
- Speak with fluency and spontaneity to communicate with some degree of elaboration in a range of familiar and unfamiliar contexts
- Write coherent texts appropriate to audience and purpose, with few linguistic errors in a range of text types, synthesising and evaluating information and arguments from a number of sources.

Entry Criteria

Learners should be at least:

- 16 years of age on entry and
- have successfully completed 3 years secondary school and /or successfully completed a New Zealand Certificate in English Language at Level 3 or equivalent

Academic Qualifier

To achieve the New Zealand Certificate in English Language (Academic) (Level 4), graduates must be able to use English relevant to an academic context to meet the outcomes.

Qualification Leads to - Education Pathway

This certificate is to build on the New Zealand Certificate in English Language (Level 3) or other certificate at a similar level in English to lead to:

- New Zealand Certificate in English Language (Professional/Academic) (Level 5)
- Most vocational and undergraduate programs/courses and specialised fields of study requiring a minimum entry criteria or equivalent of an IELTS of 6.0

The Code:

Code of practice for the pastoral care of international students

About the Code of Practice

When you come to study in New Zealand, your New Zealand education provider has an important responsibility to ensure that you are well informed, safe and properly cared for.

To support this, the New Zealand government has developed a Code of Practice for the Pastoral Care of International Students (the Code). The Code is a document that provides a framework for service delivery by education providers and their agents to international students. It sets out minimum standards of advice and care that you can expect and provides a procedure that you can follow if you have concerns about the treatment you receive from your education provider or agent of a provider.

Who the Code applies to

The Code applies to all education providers in New Zealand with international students enrolled.

The NZQA maintains a register of all education providers and exchange organisations that the Code applies to.

Summary of the Code

The Code sets standards for education providers to ensure that:

- high professional standards are maintained
- provide clear, sufficient and accurate information so you can make informed choices about your education
- give you clear, understandable information on your legal obligations and rights, including refund policies, and termination of your enrolment under any contracts you enter into with the provider
- check that you have the prescribed insurance cover
- provide a safe and supportive environment for study
- as far as practicable, ensure you live in accommodation that is safe and appropriate
- provide you with a comprehensive orientation programme to support you in your study and outline your obligations
- monitor their agents to ensure they provide you with reliable information and advice about studying, working and living in New Zealand
- ensure that the educational instruction on offer is appropriate for your expectations, English language proficiency, and academic capability
- have proper policy and processes in place to safeguard students' fees paid and be able to provide an appropriate refund if you withdraw or your course closes
- ensure you have access to proper and fair procedures for dealing with grievances (concerns or complaints).

How to Get a Copy of the Code

You can request a copy of the Code from us. You can also download a full copy of the Code of Practice from www.nzqa.govt.nz. This can be downloaded in a number of different languages.

The DRS rules:

Please contact iStudent Complaints. They are available to help you resolve financial or contractual disputes with your education provider.

Phone: 0800 00 66 75

Email: complaints@istudent.org.nz

Website: <http://www.istudent.org.nz>

iStudent Complaints is an independent service with experience in helping people to resolve disputes.

Before contacting iStudent you should raise the issue with the provider first and give them an opportunity to resolve it. Once the student and the provider have reached the end of the provider's complaint procedure and the student is not happy with the outcome, iStudent Complaints may be able to help.

Before making a complaint, the student should check that it's something iStudent Complaints can help with.

If unsure, contact NZQA first for advice. www.nzqa.govt.nz
